

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS

SUPPLEMENTAL JUROR QUESTIONNAIRE

This questionnaire is designed to shorten the amount of time the Court and lawyers will need to ask you questions in the courtroom, so please provide as much detail to your answers as possible. You are required to provide answers that are truthful. Please do not discuss with anyone any question or answer you give on this questionnaire. Please also recognize that there are no “right” or “wrong” answers to this questionnaire. The Court is merely seeking truthful and complete answers. If you feel you should not answer a particular question in writing, please write “Need to discuss” and the Court may address this with you privately.

You are instructed not to communicate about or do any research or investigation about any of the names or topics mentioned in this questionnaire. This includes electronic research and communication, meaning that you may not blog, “Tweet”, use Facebook, conduct Internet searches, or otherwise use electronic means to get or to communicate any information about any of the names or topics mentioned in this questionnaire.

You are required to sign your questionnaire, and your answers will be given the same effect as a statement given in Court. What is needed is your very best, honest effort to answer the questions contained in this questionnaire.

Please do not write on the back of any page. If you need additional space to write a response to a particular question, please use the last page.
